

Wealth of judges

JUDGE	ON BENCH SINCE	INVESTMENT WORTH	ACCOUNTS	DEBTS, LIABILITIES, ETC.
U.S. District Judge David K. Winder	Dec. 1979	Investment and trust assets worth between $1.54 million and $3.32 million	28 accounts, including: General Electric, Johnson & Johnson, Exxon Mobile, Colgate-Palmolive and Utah-based Central Utah Water Conservancy District and the Intermountain Power Agency	No debts or liabilities, no spouse income, no outside positions and no additional income outside of the investments and salary.
U.S. District Judge J. Thomas Greene	April 1985	Investments worth between $245,000 and $1.5 million	73 accounts, including: MCI World Com, Lucent Technologies, Motorola, Intel, Hewlett Packard and Dell Computer	No outside income other than investments and salary, two listed liabilities: a car loan and home improvement loan.
U.S. District Judge Tena Campbell	June 1995	Investments worth between $415,000 and $915,000	10 accounts, mostly money market and IRAs, plus a small holding in Veritas Software	No debts, no outside positions, no gifts or reimbursements.
U.S. District Judge Dale A. Kimball	October 1997	Investments worth between $400,000 and $685,000	7 accounts, including: Parr, Waddoups pension, two rental properties, Draper Irrigation and BioMeridian Corp.	No debts or liabilities, no gifts or reimbursements and no additional income.
U.S. District Judge Bruce Jenkins	Sept. 1978	Investments worth between $115,000 and $465,000	12 accounts, mostly savings and tax-exempt accounts	No outside income, no reimbursements or gifts, no creditors and no non federal positions.
U.S. District Judge Paul Cassell	May 2002	Investments worth between $100,000 and $295,000	12 accounts, all in IRAs, money market accounts and the Utah Retirement System	Earned just under $19,000 from the University of Utah law school and another $10,000 in book royalties.
U.S. District Judge David Sam	October 1985	Investments worth $90,000 or less	6 accounts, including Chevron, Enron, Consolidated Edison, Environmental Remediation and Oracle	No outside income, no gifts or reimbursements and no liabilities.
U.S. District Judge Ted Stewart	Nov. 1999	No investment income other than interest from a credit union account		No outside income, no gifts or reimbursements. Has two small credit card loans.
U.S. District Judge Dee Benson	Sept. 1991	No investments to report		No outside positions or income, no debts or liabilities.

